

Title: Buenos Aires Communications Construction Base Station

Generated on: 2026-02-05 11:11:33

Copyright (C) 2026 HALKIDIKI BESS. All rights reserved.

-----

The Argentine capital's subway operator relaunched a tender to buy more than 170 trains.

In 2019, the government of Buenos Aires was looking for a group to create a plan of the line, [1][2] but this study was cancelled in 2022. [3] The city decided to create a study with their own staff, ...

To support the modernized fleet, the project includes necessary infrastructure works, such as increasing the electrical power ...

It will have 11 stations in total and provide connections to all other 6 subway lines as well as the General Roca Railway, which travels south from Constitution station into ...

It aims to relieve overcrowding on Line C. Construction on the first section is expected to start in 2026, tenders for rolling stock procurement are expected to be called by June 2027 and the ...

It will have 11 stations in total and provide connections to all other 6 subway lines as well as the General Roca Railway, which travels ...

It includes upgrades to platforms, stations, trackbeds, and bridges across national and metro systems. Buenos Aires plays a key role in this initiative, given its high commuter ...

Line F is a planned addition to the Buenos Aires Underground. In 2019, the government of Buenos Aires was looking for a group to create a plan of the line, but this study was cancelled in 2022. The city decided to create a study with their own staff, which is still underway as of 2024. The estimated cost of the project has risen from 800 million dollars, to 2 billion USD. The layout, develop...

Website: <https://www.halkidiki-sarti.eu>

