Hello, I would like to ask you whether the sentence, "My specialisation is providing business solutions" is phrased in authentic English. As far as I'm concerned, I don't think so. I ...

I agree with you. "We specialize in making dessert." (If this is a true statement, please feel free to send some to me.) I'd never say "we are specialized in ..." That passive ...

1) We are specialising in education, family and children. 2) We specialise in education, family and children. What's the difference between the two?

Hi guys, I'm a journalist but, honestly speaking, I don't know if: 1) I'm specialized on environmental issues or if: 2) I'm specialized about enironmental issues Please, help me to ...

By the way, you can stick to your original spelling, "specialize", with a z. Don't change it on my account. I use the British spelling with s. The one with z is more ...

1. I specialize in elementary education. 2. I am specialized in elementary education. 3. His store is very specialized in fishing gear. Is #2 also correct? It is just an ...

:) Hi, everyone! I'd just like to confirm... Is specialised spelled in British English whereas specialized is in American English? I'd truly appreciate your help. Thanks indeed!

"Specialized in" is the most common term, especially when talking academic fields. I just googled "specialized on" and did find examples, but to me they sound strange. The ...
